

Many Voices, One Community Presents

SATURDAY, NOV. 4

Keynote Presentation by:

Dr. Robert Lee IV

Author, Activist, Commentator,
Writer, and Preacher

Descendant of Gen. Robert E. Lee

5TH ANNUAL

RACE, POVERTY &

SOCIAL JUSTICE

CONFERENCE

NOVEMBER 3&4, 2017

“Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Justice”

FRIDAY, NOV. 3

Perspectives: A Conversation on Race, Poverty & Education

with special guests Leland D. Melvin, engineer, author, Lynchburg native and former astronaut and Arelia Langhorne retired Lynchburg attorney, and lifelong community advocate

Friday sessions include:

Social Justice Roundtable
Talking Black in America

Saturday sessions include:

Social Justice Theatre
A White Supremacy Primer
Lynchburg Poverty
The Community Activism of Rebel Diaz:
One Latino Hip Hop Group's Alternative to the U.S. Electoral Process
Nonprofit Partnering to Create Racial Equity
Diversity in Technology & Entrepreneurship
Immigration Justice and DACA
School-to-Prison Pipeline
Black Economic Empowerment
Undocumented Liberties
Understanding Systemic Racism
Examination of local police interactions

SATURDAY, NOV. 4

Fear of a Brown Planet: Backlash and the Rise of White Nationalism

Khyati Y Joshi (Scholar, writer, researcher and educator) and
Dr. Ted Delaney, Associate Professor of History at W & L will join a distinguished panel of Lynchburg College faculty for a panel discussion

Sponsored By:

Lynchburg College
Department of Sociology and Human Services

Schewel Hall, Lynchburg College
1501 Lakeside Dr., Lynchburg, VA

Register online @ mvocva.com

Friday evening events are free & open to public.
Sign-in for Saturday begins at 8:00 a.m.
$20/person (includes lunch)
College students free w/I.D.

mvocva.com
facebook.com/mvocva
twitter.com/mvocva
instagram.com/mvocva